6. MARKETING, ADVERTISING AND PROMOTIONAL OFFERS FROM US

We may use your Identity, Contact, Technical, Usage and Profile Data to form a view on what we think you may want or need, or what may be of interest to you. This is how we decide which products, services and offers may be relevant for you.

You will receive marketing communications from us if you have requested information from us or purchased services from us or if you provided us with your details when you entered our website for the purpose of receiving information and, in each case, you have not opted out of receiving that marketing.

We may use the Google Enhanced Conversions tool, which is a feature that allows the offline tracking of conversions. We use it to track performance back to our Google ad campaigns in a secure and privacy compliant way. This helps us improve the accuracy of our conversion measurement, optimize our ad campaigns better and it allows us to measure their effectiveness in order to improve our services. We do not share any personal information with third-parties while using Google Enhanced Conversions.

We strive to provide you with choices regarding certain personal data uses, particularly around marketing and advertising.

If you do not grant us your consent but you are our Client, we are entitled to send you a commercial newsletter (or give you telemarketing calls) under the conditions of directive 2002/58/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council. In any case, you are entitled to reject such marketing communication simply by (a) opting-out button in the newsletter body, (b) using our contact form, or c) contacting us at the Email.

THIRD-PARTY MARKETING

We will get your express opt-in consent before we share your personal data with any company outside AXSE Brokerage LTD. group of companies for marketing purposes.

COOKIES

You can set your browser to refuse all or some browser cookies, or to alert you when websites set or access cookies. If you disable or refuse cookies, please note that some parts of this website may become inaccessible or not function properly. For more information about the cookies we use, please see our Cookies Policy.

7. CHANGE OF PURPOSE

We will only use your personal data for the purposes for which we collected it, unless we reasonably consider that we need to use it for another reason and that reason is compatible with the original purpose. If you wish to get an explanation as to how the processing for the new purpose is compatible with the original purpose, please contact us at the Email.

If we need to use your personal data for an unrelated purpose, we will notify you and we will explain the legal basis which allows us to do so. Please note that we may process your personal data without your knowledge or consent, in compliance with the above rules, where this is required or permitted by law.

8. DISCLOSURES OF YOUR PERSONAL DATA

We may have to share your personal data with third parties (including, Tied Agents, Affiliates, Outsourcing providers, etc) for the purpose of carrying out our services but should this be the case we check the issue.

We may share certain personal data (such as Contact Data, Usage Data, and Technical Data) with advertising platforms such as Meta or Google, to be able to deliver targeted advertisements and marketing campaigns.

We require all third parties to respect the security of your personal data and to treat it in accordance with the law. We do not allow our third-party service providers to use your personal data for their own purposes and only permit them to process your personal data for specified purposes and in accordance with our instructions.

Our service providers and vicarious agents may also receive data for these purposes if they maintain business confidentiality. These companies deliver IT services, logistics, printing services, legal, accounting, telecommunications and consulting as well as sales and marketing.

With regard to the transfer of data to recipients outside of our company, it should first be noted that as an investment service provider we commit ourselves to secrecy about all customer-related facts and valuations from which we become aware. In principle, we may only disclose information about you if required by statutory provisions, if you have given your consent, or if we are otherwise authorized to provide information. Under these conditions, in the case of a legal or regulatory obligation, recipients of personal data may be public bodies and institutions (e.g. regulatory authorities, tax authorities, law enforcement authorities).

We use Google reCAPTCHA (Enterprise) on certain pages of our Website to protect our online services against spam, abuse and fraudulent activities. In this context, Google acts as our data processor and processes data (including such as network identifiers, device/browser information, and interaction/behavioral data such as mouse movements and click patterns to perform the verification) on behalf of the Company and according to our instructions solely for the purpose of operating reCAPTCHA to help us distinguish legitimate human interactions. This data is processed solely to generate a risk score, in accordance with the Google Cloud Data Processing Addendum (CDPA). This data will not be used by Google for its own purposes, such as personalized advertising.

Other data recipients may be those for whom you have given us your consent to submit the data or to whom we may delegate personal information due to legitimate interests.

INTERNATIONAL TRANSFERS

We might need on certain occasions for the purposes of carrying out our services to transfer your personal data outside or inside the European Economic Area (EEA).

Whenever we transfer your personal data out of or into the EEA, we ensure a similar degree of protection is afforded to it by ensuring at least one of the following safeguards is implemented:

- We will only transfer your personal data to countries that have been deemed to provide an adequate level of protection for personal data by the European Commission.
- Where we use certain service providers, we may use specific contracts approved by the European Commission which give personal data the same protection it has in Europe.
- Where we use providers based in the US, we may transfer data to them if they are part of the Privacy Shield which requires them to provide similar protection to personal data shared between the Europe and the US. We also may transfer data to organizations in the US that are part of the EU-US DPF.

Please Contact us at Email if you want further information on the specific mechanism used by us when transferring your personal data out of or into the EEA.

9. DATA SECURITY

We have put in place appropriate security measures to prevent your personal data from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorized way, altered or disclosed. In addition, we limit access to your personal data to those employees, agents, contractors and other third parties who have a business need to know. They will only process your personal data on our instructions and they are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected personal data breach and will notify you and any applicable regulator of a breach where we are legally required to do so.

10. DATA RETENTION

HOW LONG WILL YOU USE MY PERSONAL DATA FOR?

We will only retain your personal data for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, accounting, or reporting requirements.

To determine the appropriate retention period for personal data, we consider the amount, nature, and sensitivity of the personal data, the potential risk of harm from unauthorized use or disclosure of your personal data, the purposes for which we process your personal data and whether we can achieve those purposes through other means, and the applicable legal requirements.

If you are our client, we will process your personal data for the duration of the Agreement you have concluded with us, and we will retain your data for a period of seven (7) years after the termination of the Agreement.

If you are not our client, but you've provided us your personal data for educational material (e-books), promotions, newsletters, and marketing/advertising purposes, we will process and retain your data for up to one (1) year unless you opt-out of such marketing earlier.

If you are not our client because you've been classified as a negative target market, we will process and retain your data for up to six (6) months.

Personal data processed via reCAPTCHA is retained only for the duration necessary to fulfil the security purposes described in this Policy or as required by the Google Cloud Data Processing Addendum.

If you are not our client because you failed to finish the registration process and/or failed to provide us with necessary documents (ID, POR etc.) we might strive to contact you and seek correction of the registration process. During this period processing of your personal data is bound to this very purpose and after reasonable time, we shall erase your data. This process may take up to 6 months.

Retention of personal data of our service providers takes seven (7) years after they cease being service providers.

We may retain evidence for other purposes within the statutory limitation period.

Anonymous, not personally tagged pictures from seminars, conferences and other public presentations might be processed for up to seven years.

Personal data contained in email, chats, phone calls and other means of distant communication might be processed according to the related and relevant purpose specified herein. Processing period might be up to seven years.

Calls with us or any of our representatives are recorded, and the call recordings are retained for: for

- a) Seven (7) years if you are not our client, for; or
- b) Seven (7) years after the termination of our Agreement, if you are our client

11. YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS

Under certain circumstances, you have rights under data protection laws in relation to your personal data:

- Right of Access: Request access to your personal data (commonly known as a “data subject access request”). This enables you to receive a copy of the personal data we hold about you and to check that we are lawfully processing it.
- Right to Rectify: Request correction of the personal data that we hold about you. This enables you to have any incomplete or inaccurate data we hold about you corrected, though we may need to verify the accuracy of the new data you provide to us.
- Right to Erasure: Request erasure of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to delete or remove personal data where there is no good reason for us continuing to process it. You also have the right to ask us to delete or remove your personal data where you have successfully exercised your right to object to processing (see below), where we may have processed your information unlawfully or where we are required to erase your personal data to comply with local law. Note, however, that we may not always be able to comply with your request of erasure for specific legal reasons which will be notified to you, if applicable, at the time of your request.
- Right to Object: Object to processing of your personal data where we are relying on a legitimate interest (or those of a third party) and there is something about your particular situation which makes you want to object to processing on this ground as you feel it impacts on your fundamental rights and freedoms. You also have the right to object where we are processing your personal data for direct marketing purposes. In some cases, we may demonstrate that we have compelling legitimate grounds to process your information which override your rights and freedoms.
- Request restriction of processing of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to suspend the processing of your personal data in the following scenarios: (a) if you want us to establish the data's accuracy; (b) where our use of the data is unlawful but you do not want us to erase it; (c) where you need us to hold the data even if we no longer require it as you need it to establish, exercise or defend legal claims; or (d) you have objected to our use of your data but we need to verify whether we have overriding legitimate grounds to use it.

- Request the transfer of your personal data to you or to a third party. We will provide to you, or a third party you have chosen, your personal data in a structured, commonly used, machine-readable format. Note that this right only applies to automated information which you initially provided consent for us to use or where we used the information to perform a contract with you.
- Withdraw consent at any time where we are relying on consent to process your personal data. However, this will not affect the lawfulness of any processing carried out before you withdraw your consent. If you withdraw your consent, we may not be able to provide certain products or services to you. We will advise you if this is the case at the time you withdraw your consent.

If you wish to exercise any of the rights set out above, please contact us at Email.

12. NO FEE USUALLY REQUIRED

You will not have to pay a fee to access your personal data (or to exercise any of the other rights). However, we may charge a reasonable fee if your request is clearly unfounded, repetitive or excessive. Alternatively, we may refuse to comply with your request in these circumstances.

13. CHILDREN'S PRIVACY

We do not knowingly collect any information from anyone under 15 years of age. Our websites, products and services are all directed to people who are at least 15 years old or older. If you are under 15, do not use or provide any information on these websites or on or through any of its features / register on the websites, make any purchases through the websites or provide any information about yourself to us, including your name, address, telephone number or email address. If we learn that we have collected or received personal data from a child under 15, we will delete that information.

14. WHAT WE MAY NEED FROM YOU

We may need to request specific information from you to help us confirm your identity and ensure your right to access your personal data (or to exercise any of your other rights). This is a security measure to ensure that personal data is not disclosed to any person who has no right to receive it. We may also contact you to ask you for further information in relation to your request to speed up our response.

15. TIME LIMIT TO RESPOND

We try to respond to all legitimate requests within one month (30 calendar days). Occasionally it may take us longer than a month if your request is particularly complex or you have made a number of requests. In this case, we will notify you and keep you updated.

16. THIRD PARTY AGREEMENTS

We clarify that TradingView's privacy policy, available at: www.tradingview.com/privacy-policy (or as the URL and the privacy policy is amended from time to time) is not applicable to our implementation of the TradingView platform, and only our Privacy Policy should be applied where the TradingView service is being utilized by our clients. We urge you to have a look at TradingView's privacy policy to check the event where it is applicable.

INFORMATION ABOUT OUR USE OF COOKIES

Our website uses cookies to distinguish you from other users of our website. This helps us to provide you with a good experience when you browse our website and also allows us to improve our site.

A cookie is a small file of letters and numbers that we store on your browser or the hard drive of your computer if you agree. Cookies contain information that is transferred to your computer's hard drive.

Some cookies are absolutely necessary to enable you to move around our website and use its features. Without these cookies, essential security features cannot be activated and services you have asked for cannot be provided.

We use the following cookies

- Strictly necessary cookies. These are cookies that are required for the operation of our website. They include, for example, cookies that enable you to log into secure areas of our website, use a credit card or make use of e-billing services.
- Analytical/performance cookies. They allow us to recognize and count the number of visitors and to see how visitors move around our website when they are using it. This helps us to improve the way our website works, for example, by ensuring that users are finding what they are looking for easily.
- Functionality cookies. These are used to recognize you when you return to our website. This enables us to personalize our content for you, greet you by name and remember your preferences (for example, your choice of language or region).
- Targeting cookies. These cookies record your visit to our website, the pages you have visited and the links you have followed. We will use this information to make our website and the advertising displayed on it more relevant to your interests. We may also share this information with third parties for this purpose.

Please note that third parties (including, for example, advertising networks and providers of external services like web traffic analysis services) may also use cookies, over which we have no control. These cookies are likely to be analytical/performance cookies or targeting cookies.

You block cookies by activating the setting on your browser that allows you to refuse the setting of all or some cookies. However, if you use your browser settings to block all cookies (including essential cookies) you may not be able to access all or parts of our site.
